

COVID-19 Announcement

Lawyers are considered an essential service, and we are operating on regular business hours. For The Ye Law Firm, safety and well-being in our offices and our community is of the utmost importance. For the foregoing reasons, The Ye Law has implemented the following prevention measures for our employees and guests:

- Everyone to wear face masks at all times.
- Maintain social distancing.
- Attest to your current condition and well-being upon arrival.
- Only have necessary visitors in attendance.

In addition, The Ye Law is taking these additional safety measures:

- Continue to work from home and only come into the office when necessary.
- We are limiting the number of people in our offices.
- Frequent sanitizing of conference areas, door handles, tables, and chairs before and after meetings.

The Ye Law is taking all necessary precautions to provide a safe and healthy environment to everyone we have personal contact with and ask the same of all visitors during this unusual situation. We will continue to remain attentive in our duty to uphold recommendations through the CDC and the State. We will continually monitor the status and implement any changes to our policies as needed. Thank you for your understanding and patience.
