

The Washington Dog Bite & Premises Liability Accident Guide
An In-Depth Guide To Dog Bites and Premises Liability Accident Claims in Washington State And How To Maximize The Outcomes

Imagine taking a leisurely stroll through your neighborhood when an uncontrolled dog runs up to you. Hopefully the pup is looking for a good belly rub however it is always possible the dog will become suspicious and bite you. Or imagine walking up to your neighbor's house to share a meal and you trip then fall on an uneven sidewalk.

Another common accident happens when someone slips and falls in a grocery or other retail store. These situations happen daily and are not uncommon accidents that end with people hurt and in the hospital.

The Ye Law Firm is Small Enough To Care Yet Big Enough To Win. We can sort through the facts, help you determine if there is negligence or wrongful conduct, and help you compute a monetary value of the dog bite or the premises liability accident case. Download this FREE book today!

In this book, you will find out the answers to these questions and many more:

- You've been bit by someone's dog. What is the first thing you should you do?
What are the owner's responsibility and liability regarding the dog bite?
- What are some common accidents that happen at locations other than your property??
- How is liability determined if you are hurt one someone else's property?
- How are monetary damages determined in dog bite or premises liability accidents?